

Frequently Asked Questions

New International Student Orientation

When does school begin for new students in the international program?

- School begins on Monday, August 8th at 8am for orientation week

Is attendance at orientation week mandatory?

- Yes, it's mandatory. This week helps students become familiar with Alemany's campus, American education policies and culture. Student will also set up their iPads and become familiar with the learning software used at Bishop Alemany High School.

What is the time schedule for orientation week?

- From August 8-12th from 8am-2pm daily except Wednesday, August 10th. Hours on Wednesday will be from 8am-2:30pm.

What will students need during orientation week?

- Each student will need to purchase and bring his or hers iPad before Friday, August 12th.

Is orientation week included in the tuition?

- No, it is a separate fee that is invoiced from the Business Office.